National Anthem

by Francis Scott Key

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Alma Mater

by Fred Lewis Pattee

For the glory of old State,
For her founders, strong and great,
For the future that we wait,
Raise the song, raise the song,

Sing our love and loyalty,
Sing our hopes that, bright and free,
Rest, O Mother dear, with thee.
All with thee, all with thee.

When we stood at childhood's gate,
Shapeless in the hands of fate,
Thou didst mold us, dear old State,
Dear old State, dear old State.

May no act of ours bring shame
To one heart that loves thy name,
May our lives but swell thy fame,
Dear old State, dear old State!

SPEAKER

Vince Sadusky ('87)

Vince Sadusky is the chief executive officer of Univision Communications Inc. A Penn State alumnus who was recognized as a University Scholar when he graduated with a bachelor's degree in accounting in 1987, he has led several media companies in just over two decades in the media industry.

As CEO of Univision, Sadusky is in charge of informing, entertaining and empowering Hispanic America through the leading Hispanic media company in the United States. Univision's portfolio includes the third-most-watched sports network, fifth-most-viewed TV network, 58 owned-and-operated radio stations, 65-owned-and-operated local TV stations and a Hispanic influencer network and social reach of more than 300 million.

Sadusky has strategically refocused the company in the past two years. Under his leadership Univision has launched local morning newscasts, local news apps, and increased content diversification. Additionally, Univision has expanded its entertainment and sports offerings, which led to notable digital video development. As a result of Sadusky's efforts, Univision maintained its status as the No. 1 Spanish-language network (in both primetime and total-day measurements) at the end of 2019 for the 26th consecutive year.

In addition to his position at Univision, Sadusky serves on the Board of Trustees for The Paley Center for Media. He also serves on the board of directors of International Game Technology, a multinational gambling company.

Before serving as CEO of Univision, Sadusky was CEO of LIN Media where he increased the company's value four times by merging with Media General.

Sadusky earned an MBA from New York Institute of Technology. He and his wife, Wendy, have three children — William, Olivia and Heather. William earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Penn State in 2016. Olivia will earn her bachelor's degree in finance from the University this weekend.
