SPRING SEMESTER 2020

PENN STATE FAYETTE, THE EBERLY CAMPUS

National Anthem

by Francis Scott Key

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Alma Mater

by Fred Lewis Pattee

For the glory of old State,
For her founders, strong and great,
For the future that we wait,
Raise the song, raise the song,

Sing our love and loyalty,
Sing our hopes that, bright and free,
Rest, O Mother dear, with thee.
All with thee, all with thee.

When we stood at childhood's gate,
Shapeless in the hands of fate,
Thou didst mold us, dear old State,
Dear old State, dear old State.

May no act of ours bring shame
To one heart that loves thy name,
May our lives but swell thy fame,
Dear old State, dear old State!

Message from W. Charles Patrick Chancellor and Chief Academic Officer

We are celebrating the conclusion of your long journey to this moment of transitioning from a college student to a graduate of The Pennsylvania State University. I'm sure you realize it's a journey in which you did not travel alone. You were likely encouraged, cheered and perhaps even carried at times by those who care deeply for you. Take a moment today to thank them for helping you along this journey.

You are graduating from a prestigious institution, one with a long history of high quality and rigorous standards. That is possible, in large part, because of an outstanding faculty who guided and mentored you toward a goal of lifelong learning. Take a moment today to remember and be thankful to those faculty.

It is our sincere hope that we have lived up to your many and varied expectations for a university education and have helped prepare you for the next part of your journey. Penn State Fayette is your home campus...your home. Please know that you are always welcome here, and once we are able to gather again, we hope that you visit often to let us know of your successes. Please know that you are—We Are—Penn State.

Thank you and stay safe.
